January 2015

Happy new year to you all.I hope you are fine.

We started the first term 2015 on Tuesday the 6th of this month and our first official assembly this term was today Friday the 9th of this Month.

Teachers had opportunity to welcome back children to school from a long Christmas holiday then there was the first lesson on Friday as always where all children come together for pastoral instruction from teachers both from school and churches.

Here are some of the pictures i took today.
